SUPPLEMENTAL in the matter of the enrollment of MARTHA KEYS
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation:

Commission: The Cherokee Nation by its representatives makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant that it would by its representatives introduce testimony tending to disprove her right to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the offices of the Commission in the town of Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 17th day of March, 1902. The said Martha Keys has this day, to-wit: the 17th day of March, 1902, been called and failing to respond either in person or by attorney, ~~the case is~~

The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a certified copy of a marriage license issued by Charles A. Davidson, Clerk of the United States Court, Northern District, Indian Territory, on the 14th day of September, 1902, authorizing the marriage of J. B. West and Mrs. Mattie Keys, and certificate showing that they were united in matrimony by M. L. Butler, a Minister of the Gospel, on the 14th day September, 1901.

The tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation now in the possession of the Commission examined and fail to disclose that J. B. West as ever been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings, Cherokee Representative: The Cherokee Nation contends that this woman has forfeited her right to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation under Section 666 of the Compiled laws of the Cherokee Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed, herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 6, 1903, transmitting the record relative to the application of William Keys for the enrollment of himself and three minor children, George, Jesse and Henry Keys, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Martha Keys, as an intermarried citizen.

February 2, 1903, the commission held that George, Jesse and Henry Keys were entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood, and that Martha Keys was not entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage. The application for the enrollment of William Keys as a citizen by blood was dismissed, he having died June 29, 1901.

The evidence shows that William Keys is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood and was lawfully married January 8, 1903, to Martha Pryor, a white woman. The minor children are the issue of this marriage. The name of William Keys appears on the 1880 roll. Martha and George Keys are identified with the 1896 roll, Jesse and Henry Keys are identified by birth affidavits. Martha Keys September 11, 1901, married J. B. West, a white man.

In view of the record the approval of the commission's decision is recommended except in so far as it relates to Martha Keys, now Martha West, who applies for enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Very respectfully,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

October 23, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs forwarded your letter of March 6, 1903, submitting the record in the matter of the application for enrollment of William Keys and his minor children, George, Jessie (or Jesse), and Henry Keys, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Martha Keys, as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

It appears from the record that William Keys died June 29, 1901, and you therefore dismissed the application as to him.

The record shows that William Keys, a Cherokee citizen by blood, identified on the 1880 and 1896 rolls of the Cherokee Nation, married in January, 1893, Martha Pryor, a white woman; that said minor children are the issue of that marriage; that Martha Keys (nee Pryor) and George Keys are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896; that Jessie (or Jesse) and Henry Keys were born since the date of said roll, but are identified by birth affidavits submitted; that all of said minor children have always lived in the Cherokee Nation; that in September, 1901, Martha Keys, married one J. B. West, a white man.

By decision dated February 2, 1903, you hold that George, Jessie and Henry Keys are entitled to enrollment as Cherokees by blood; and that under section 666 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation Martha Keys forfeited her right as an intermarried Cherokee citizen, when she married J. B. West, a white man.

The Commissioner recommends that your decision be approved, except as to Martha Keys, (now West). A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Concurring in his recommendation your decision is hereby affirmed, except as to Martha Keys, whose right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is not passed upon in this decision.

Respectfully,

WASHINGTON.

March 5, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

On March 6, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of William Keys, and his minor children, George Keys, Jessie Keys and Henry Keys, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and of Martha Keys, his wife, as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation.

The record shows that William Keys a full blood Cherokee is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that George Keys is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896; that on January 8, 1893, William Keys was lawfully married to Martha Pryor, a white woman, and that the minor applicants herein are the result of that marriage. Jessie Keys and Henry Keys were born after the roll of 1896 was made, and they are identified by birth affidavit accompanying the record. All of the minor applicants have resided in the Cherokee Nation ever since their births. The evidence further shows that William Keys died on June 29, 1901, and that on September 11, 1901, Martha Keys was married to one J. B. West, a white man.

In your decision dated February 2, 1903, you dismiss the application as to William Keys, he having died prior to September 1, 1902, and hold that George, Jessie and Henry Keys should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that Martha Keys should not be enrolled as an intermarried citizen, as, under section 666 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892), she forfeited her rights as a Cherokee by her marriage to said J. B. West.

Reporting October 23, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision as to all of the applicants except Martha Keys. A copy of his letter is enclosed herewith.

The Department affirms your decision as to William, George, Jessie and Henry Keys. The papers will be held until the Court of Claims renders its decision in the matter of the rights of intermarried citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and thereafter the Department will pass upon the right of the applicant, Martha Keys, to be enrolled as an intermarried Cherokee.

Subject
Enrollment of
Thomas Duncan,
Cherokee.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Thomas Duncan, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation whose name appears on the final roll of citizens of said Nation opposite No. 6105.

No application to select an allotment of land for this person having been made, an investigation was begun to determine whether he was living, and if not, the date of his death. The evidence secured as a result of this investigation appears to show conclusively that Thomas Duncan died during the year 1901. His parents being dead and no wife or children surviving, proper notice was given his sister Maggie Duncan, and his brother, James Duncan, of their right to appear before this office and show cause why a notation should not be placed upon the Cherokee roll opposite the name of Thomas Duncan, showing that by reason of the date of his death he was not entitled to an allotment.

No response having been received to these notices, I have the honor to recommend that the following notation be placed on the final roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation at

Char. 2341-2

No. 6108, opposite the name of Thomas Duncan.

Died prior to September 1, 1902.

Not entitled to land or money.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that Thomas Duncan died prior to September 1, 1902. Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., L., 716), provides that no allotment of land, or other tribal property, shall be made to any person or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on the Cherokee roll and who died prior to September 1, 1902.

It appears from the Commissioner's report that notice was sent to the brother and sister of Thomas Duncan of the purpose to place opposite the name of the latter on the above mentioned roll the notation:

"Died prior to September, 1, 1902;

L-49120-2

The Office therefore recommends that there be placed opposite the name of Thomas Duncan on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, the notation above mentioned, and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on the copies of the roll in their possession.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 2, 1906, referring to Departmental letters of May 31, 1905, (I.T.D.6126), June 1, 1905, (I.T.D.6240), October 4, 1905, (I.T.D.12228), and January 12, 1906, (I.T.D.110), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902. Commissioner Bixby transmits affidavits as to the deaths of certain of said persons. The numbers of the enrollment cards on which these persons are listed, the numbers opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names, are given in Commissioner Bixby's report. The Commissioner says that the Department's instructions of June 1, (I.T.D.6240), and October 4, 1905, (I.T.D.12228), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with. The Commissioner further says that no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living September 1, 1902, he would recommend that their names be stricken from the approved partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this Office and the Department, and that his office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits as to the deaths of these persons are herewith transmitted, and the recommendation of Commissioner Bixby is concurred in.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Varrabee.

Acting Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of HENRY F. NICHOLSON, for the enrollment of himself, his wife SALLIE B. NICHOLSON, and his children WILLIE, DAVID L., CORNELIA and LEO B. NICHOLSON, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

SALLIE B. NICHOLSON, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q Your name is Sallie B. Nicholson ? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you ? A Twenty six.
Q What is your post office ? A Muskogee.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood are you ? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Been living there ever since I was seven years old, ever since 1883.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship in 1883 ? A I guess so.
Q You have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since 1883 ?
A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name ? A Henry Nicholson.
Q He is a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q How many children have you ? A Four.
Q They are all living are they ? A Yes sir.
Q Your husband is living ? A Yes sir.

WILLIAM H. BARKER, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission

- Q What is your name ? A William H. Barker.
Q How old are you ? A I was fifty two last November.
Q What is your post office ? A Muskogee.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
Q An admitted citizen there ? A Yes sir.
Q When were you admitted to citizenship ?
A As well as I remember it was in November or December, 1883, in November, 1883, I guess it was.
Q Wasn't it December 6th ? A It might be, I won't be certain as to that, but I was admitted during a regular session of the Cherokee National Council in 1883.

--W. H. Barker re-admitted by Council on December 6, 1883.

- Q Who was admitted with you ? A Elvira C. Barker.
Q Who was that ? A That was my wife, and my daughter who is now Mrs. Nicholson.

--The Cherokee printed roll of persons who have been admitted or re-admitted to citizenship since 1880, shows that one L. B. Barker was admitted--

- Q Did your daughter ever have any other name except Sallie, or do you imagine that was a misprint ? A It must have been a misprint.
Q Then you think this L. B. Barker was intended for your daughter S. B. Barker, and was a misprint ? A Yes sir.

Q Were there any other Barkers admitted about that time ?
A No sir, not that I know of.
Q Are there any other Barkers who are Cherokees ?
A None that are relations of mine.
Q Have you heard of any ? A I have heard of some Barkers up here in the Cherokee nation who claim to be.
Q Are they natives or have they been admitted ?
A I can't tell you anything about that.

--It appears from the Cherokee printed list of persons admitted and re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation that W. H. Barker, M. C. Barker, and one L. B. Barker, were all admitted together, by an act of the Cherokee National Council on December 6, 1883, and the L. B. Barker therein named is satisfactorily identified as the applicant Sallie B. Nicholson, nee Barker.

Q How old was your daughter at the time of her admission to citizenship ? A She was about seven years old I think, if I am not mistaken; I have a copy of the act of the Cherokee Nation Council admitting us.
Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation after your admission ?
A I come here before; I came here about the first of November and went right to Tahlequah and put in my application.
Q You came to the Cherokee Nation to reside did you ?
A Yes sir.
Q And you were a resident of the Cherokee Nation at the time you made application for citizenship ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you and your daughter been living here ever since ?
A Yes sir. I have been living in the Cherokee Nation, only I have been working for the government there at Muskogee for four or five years, but we have kept our home there in the Cherokee nation and I have voted there.
Q Your daughter has lived in the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
Q She and her husband have resided in the Cherokee Nation since their marriage ? A Yes sir, until last year they moved to Muskogee, and reside there now where I do.

his marriage to this child's mother, a white woman, is shown by satisfactory testimony, to have taken place in 1889 or 1890, and it is shown that they lived together continuously as husband and wife for some six years or such a matter, after their marriage the mother of this child is identified on the roll of 1896; therefore James A. Horne will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee

Applicant re-called:

Q Is your full name really John Hair Conrad or John Conrad Hair?
A John Conrad Hair I guess would be the proper way.

RICHARD M. WALKER, recalled and further examined:

Q How can you explain this enrollment in 1896 as Conrad; was the old name of the family John Hair Conrad? A My understanding is that the name of the old family was Hair Conrad, and his father was named John, and they called him John Hair and they left off the Conrad. I took the census in 1880 and I believe I put ~~these~~ these boys down as Hairs and left off the Conrad, and it seems that in the next census they were put down as Conrads.
Q So then properly speaking they are Conrads? A Yes sir.

APPLICANT RECALLED:

Q You want to be known as John Hair do you? A That is the way I have always been.
Q How shall I put you down? A I guess it ought to go down the right full name.
Q As John Hair Conrad? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before you married your present wife, Lizzie? A No sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as a native Cherokee; the variation observed in the enrollment is due to only a part of his name having been given at one time, his full name being John Hair Conrad; his wife, Lizzie Hair, a white woman, is identified on the roll of 1896 as his wife; their marriage in 1881 is established by his own and other personal testimony, and they have lived together continuously in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage; their two children George and Medley J. are identified on the roll of 1896, and have lived all their lives with their father and mother; the applicant and these two children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood, and his wife for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Muskogee , Indian Territory, January 19, 1907

Lizzie Conrad,

Braggs, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

This office is in receipt of your letter of January 8, 1907, in which you ask if you may make a new application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

In reply you are advised that the records of this office show that one "Mary E. Conrad", wife of John H. Conrad, is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

The United States Supreme Court by its decision of November 5, 1906, held that white persons who intermarried according to Cherokee law with Cherokee citizens prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

If you are the person listed for enrollment as Mary E. Conrad, and claim to be entitled to enrollment under the Court's decision, you will be permitted to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time within the near future, and submit such testimony as you desire, relative to your marriage to your Cherokee husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by inter-marriage of the Cherokee Nation, and as to the date of your marriage.

The Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, after March 4, 1907, and the matter of your enrollment should, therefore, receive your immediate attention.

- Q What was Kendricks' full name? A Kendricks is all I know/

Gen'r. Breckinridge: The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee; now he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; as for the application for his child, Noah Reese, he is desired to supply the Commission with duly authenticated certificate of this child's birth; when that is done, the name of this child will be placed upon a doubtful card for the reason that, while the applicant exhibits a certificate of marriage in 1896, it is in to one, Mary Hall, instead of to Mary M. Kendricks, which he states was the name of his wife at the time he married her; her maiden name was Hall, and the applicant says that she had been married to a man named Kendricks, but he offers no evidence that she was ever divorced from Kendricks, and makes only a doubtful assertion that Kendricks was dead. While a brother of the applicant's wife states that he never heard of her being married to Kendricks.

The applicant is desired to supply the Commission with evidence in regard to this marriage, and as to whether the former husband, Kendricks, was dead at the time he married his wife, or if not, whether they were divorced, and to give satisfactory explanation of the discrepancy existing between his testimony and the marriage license; the marriage license and certificate are filed herewith.

P. G. Reuter,

Clerk in Charge Cherokee Land Office,
Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of February 14, enclosing the record in Cherokee case number 2380, Nancy J. Sevier et al., and stating that the record is now deemed complete. You also state that, upon investigation, it appears that John A. Sevier, through whom the applicant claims her right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, had a living wife at the time of his marriage to her.

This record is herewith returned to you and your attention is called to the fact that the testimony shows that, when the applicant appeared before the Commission on August 31, 1900, she testified that she was married to John A. Sevier in 1889. In her testimony of October 31, 1902, she states, in answer to the question as to the date of her marriage to this man, "In 1888 I believe."

The record further shows that John A. Sevier secured a divorce from his former wife October 29, 1889. It is, therefore, necessary to establish the exact date of the applicant's marriage to her husband, through whom she claims citizenship, and you are directed to take further testimony on that point, and, if possible, to have the applicant furnish documentary proof of said marriage.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Nowata, I. T., June 17th, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Quisanna Ward for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage;

JOHN F. WARD, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS, On re-examination:

Q What is your name? A John F. Ward.

Q What is your age? A 46 years old, past.

Q You are the identical John F. Ward listed for enrollment on card 2581, with a child, Etola? A Yes sir.

Q What is your wife's name? A Sallie Quisanna.

Q When were you married to her? A 29th day of May, 1887.

Q She a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Q She is a white woman? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you live with her continuously after your marriage?

A We were together without any trouble for about eight or nine years.

Q Go ahead and tell about it? A Well about eight or nine years we were together without any trouble or anything of the kind; there had been trouble between us, but we had never separated until well it was about '98 I reckon, when she went off first.

Q Went off in the year 1898? A Yes sir; then she wasn't gone a great while until I went down to Wagoner and I talked her into coming back.

Q Did she come back? A Yes sir; I brought her back, really she had to come back to court.

Q About what year was it she came back? A It was the time of that big flood on the Verdigris, same summer of that big flood on the Verdigris..

Q Well she come back to you then, and etc., you had been to Wagoner to meet her? A Yes sir, we was together then about a year.

Q When did she go? A She took the little girl; I reckon you heard about me getting her at Claremore, - and it was in September, the last day of September, and then about a month after that she left; our girl then was over at Nauke's in Claremore, and I were over there one evening but I had no way to take the little girl home, - that was on Thursday evening, and I told her I would come back on Saturday evening and take her home; next day I was going on into town anyway, walked in there, and when I got back home that night there was a lot of the things on the floor of the house, and Burgess lived about half mile from me and I went down to see if Anne, my wife, was there, and when I got there she left the house, and I never found her at all that night.

Q How long was it that before you were arrested? A That was 8 or 9 months.

Q Did she ever live with you from that time until the time you were arrested? A Yes sir, she went off and stayed that winter, and last fall I sent her money to come home after her and her folks fell out, and she come back to me at Claremore.

Q Did she come back? A Yes sir.

Q Did you and her live together then? A Yes sir.

Q She got back and about half an hour after that we had another fuss, and then we lived together about two months, and she left one Saturday evening, and I was arrested next day, and after that we never lived together no more, and then I went to see her after I come back off of that trip, and she refused to live with me.

Q Where is she living? A At Coffeyville.

Q You considered her your wife until a few months before you were arrested? A The day before.

Q She left the day before you were arrested? A Yes sir.

Q She never permanently left you, you consider, until then, she had been living with you until the day before you were arrested? A She changed her mind every once in a while, and I would wait until her mind was changed and she

Q How long had she been living with you before you were arrested, the last time that you and her had a rape? A About two months.

Q Then the day before you were arrested she left? A Yes sir.

Q Did she know you were going to be arrested? A I imagined she knew she could have been arrested.

Q She had you arrested? A I don't say she did, but that's my guess about it.

Q Then since your return from prison she has refused to live with you? A Yes sir.

Q. Ettola is the name of your child? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were before the Commission at Nowata, were you, in 1900?

A. Yes, sir; I testified there.

Q. Is that the time you made application for enrollment?

A. No, sir; I made application right here before I went off. I made application right here for me and the little girl when the Dawes Commission were at Fairland.

Q. When you testified before you testified your wife run off and left you? A. I testified we separated three times.

Q. Didn't you say that your wife run away and left home?

A. Why, if I said she run away, I don't remember. I said she left me three different time and the last time she didn't come back and probably never would.

Q. You didn't mean to give the impression she abandoned you?

A. No, sir. One time we had a fight and she pulled out and left. I followed her, following her to the other side of Burgess's. He lived the other wife of Claremore. I followed her. She skipped me.

Q. Was your testimony that you gave in Nowata practically the same as you give now? A. Only I didn't make any statement there that it was my fault. My statement at Nowata was this, that we had been separated three times and wasn't living together now. That was my statement.

Q. Did you intend to give the impression that she left you?

A. No, sir.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. Didn't you appear against her? A. I went before the Commission to state that we wasn't living together. I was just going by there one evening they sit there and went in.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. You hadn't ben subpoenaed? A. No, sir.

Q. What made you go before the Commission? A. Justing going home and went in to testify and my calculation was to testify in regard to her brother. Hastings said then that they had her on the rejected list. I made the remark that that is the place for her.

Q. You voluntarily made the statement when you went there?

A. Yes, sir; the first statement. Yes, sir. I just stated that I went to her and she she wouldn't live with me. Needles said in the application I said we had been separated three times.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. You went before the Commission and testified against her because she wouldn't live with you?

A. Yes, I said she said she wouldn't live with me and was in Coffeyville.

Q. How does it happen that you testify for her to-day?

A. I didn't come here to testify for her. I come with my brother-in-law and thought it would be all right to testify for her. She couldn't come.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. Was it your intention to testify against her? A. My intention is to tell the facts as they are.

Q. Do we infer that you didn't intend to tell the facts over there? A. Not as far as I have to-day.

Q. What has caused you to change your mind? A. I can tell the whole truth and wouldn't blame myself, then.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. You were up there last Saturday? A. Yes, sir; I was up there Saturday night.

Q. Talk about this? A. No, sir.

Q. She didn't ask you to come down? A. Why, she says, Mr. Ward, I don't know whether I will get a notice or not. If I get a notice I am going to write to you and have you give testimony.

Q. Then you had some understanding? A. No, sir; none at all.

I told her I couldn't make any statement before the Commission.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. She don't know you are here? A. She knows I am here with him. She don't know I am here for her.

Q. Your purpose in coming up there to-day is to qualify that you said two years ago? A. My purpose, since I come here, since I got my ticket, my purpose was to go on and state where my fault was, that it was my fault. I was wholly to be blamed for the separation from the first. I always did drink a good deal and then I got a jail sentence. We agreed to have a separation. We got a divorce. She did ask the lawyer to stop the case.

Q. You didn't appear. A. I didn't appear.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John F. Ward, Ettola Ward and Quixanna Ward as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on July 28, 1900, John F. Ward appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor daughter, Ettola Ward, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Thereafter, on October 22, 1900, Quixanna Ward appeared before the Commission at Claremore, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage, and renewed the application heretofore made for the enrollment of her husband, John F. Ward, and her minor child, Ettola Ward, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 17, 1901; at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 7, 1902, and again on October 27, 1902. On September 24, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit of death wherein it is shown that Ettola Ward died on August 18, 1902.

The evidence shows that John F. Ward is a citizen by blood, and is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880. He was lawfully married on May 29, 1887, to his said wife, Quixanna Ward. As a result of that marriage Ettola Ward was born. It is further shown that subsequent to the said marriage there had been periodical separations between John F. Ward and his said wife. Reconciliations were, however, effected, but since June 22, 1900, they have not lived together as husband and wife.

It further appears that John F. Ward has been a resident of the Cherokee Nation continuously since his enrollment in 1880, and that his wife, Quixanna Ward, has resided in said nation with him from the date of her marriage to him up to June, 1900, at which time they separated. John F. Ward and his said wife, Quixanna, testified that a divorce dissolving their marriage was obtained, but there is no record evidence of that fact. It is shown, however, that she has not remarried up to and including September 1, 1902. Ettola Ward died on August 18, 1902, as evidenced by an affidavit of death made a part of the record herein.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John
F. Ward should be enrolled as a citizen by blood, and that Quixama
Ward should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1888 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

It is further ordered by this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Etola Ward as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 8, 1886, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Quixanna Ward, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 28, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Quixanna Ward, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Claremore, Indian Territory, October 22, 1900, Nowata, Indian Territory, June 17, 1901, and Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 7, 1902 and October 27, 1902. The records further show that on March 2, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision herein granting said applicant the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Quixanna Ward, is a white woman and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage in the Cherokee Nation to John F. Ward, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, his name being found opposite No. 6134 on the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, on May 29, 1887. Said applicant did not therefore, marry a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the decision rendered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on March 2, 1903, granting the application for the enrollment of Quixanna Ward, be rescinded, set aside and held for naught, and in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Quixanna Ward, is not entitled under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, I. T., November 22, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Bird Proctor for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Lola, and his five minor children, Wily, Dakie, Cornsilk, Nancy and Ed Proctor, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

From a further examination of the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation now in possession of this Commission, it appears that the enrollment upon the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation heretofore accepted by the Commission of the applicant, Lola, is incorrect and the same is hereby ordered cancelled.

It is further ordered that this statement be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

- Q How long have you known him? A I have been personally acquainted with him, I think, about twenty-four or -five years. That is as well as I remember. It was about 1877, might have been 1878, that I first got acquainted with him.

Q State fully the proceedings that took place, and in what manner?

A It was just in accordance with that little statute in the Cherokee law book, that provides for the arbitration of civil cases. We were sworn by the Clerk, and we sat, I suppose, just about as a court to try the case. We tried the case on the evidence on both sides, and we agreed to separate them. Q Have you ever held any official position in the Cherokee nation? A No sir.

Q Is Andy Hair related to you? A No sir.

Q Is his present wife related to you? A No sir, none at all.

Q Were the parties to that ~~proceedings~~ arbitration given a copy of the proceedings at all? A I don't know whether they were given a copy of them or not. Joe Ross was the Clerk, he wrote out our decision, and he attended to that business. I don't pay any attention to it. I was in a hurry to get away, and as quick as it was over I left. What was done after that I don't know. I know he does all the writing that was required while we were there.

Q Did they have any child, Mary Ross and Andy Hair? A Yes sir, they had a girl.

Q Who was given the custody of that child? A She was.

Q Do you know about Andy Hair's marriage to his present wife?

A No sir, I am not a witness to that. I was there at that time they were married.

Q Do you know whether or not he was married after that arbitration took place? A Yes sir, he is living with his wife, the one that he has now.

Q I mean was he married before or after that? A Afterwards, after that.

Q What impresses it upon your mind that that was in 1884? A I can't call any particular thing to mind, only at that time I had, just a little before that, one of my children died, in 1884, and I remember just after that time that I was called on to arbitrate this case. It was just a short time after.

Q You have how many children? A I have only got three children living.

Q What is the name of the oldest one? A Nellie.

Q When was that child born? A Born in 1878.

Q What day? A Born the 3rd of August, 1878.

Q Do you know the date of the birth of the next child? A She was born the 4th of April, 1880.

Q Have you been listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q He is a white man, you say? A Yes sir.

Q Where do they reside? A They live in Cooweescoowee District, close to Chelsea.

Q Do you know how soon Mary Ross married Tom Jones after you and she separated? A We were separated in May, I think, and she married, I think, about in August.

Q Was that before or after the arbitration took place? A That was after.

Q She married after the arbitration? A Yes sir.

Q They have how many children? A Yes sir, they have children, but I don't remember how many they have. A houseful of them.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mollie Pair as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee Strait card field No. 2385.

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM T. JONES, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, his wife, MARY JONES, and his children, JOHN E., GEORGE O., PERRY, WILLIAM A., ALMA E. and MORA JONES, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

WILLIAM T. JONES, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q What is your name ? A William T. Jones.
Q How old are you ? A Forty five
Q What is your post office ? A Chelsea.
Q Are you an applicant to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage?
A Why, if I understand right, my application has been made.
Q You have heretofore made application ? A Yes sir.
Q You are a white man ? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the wife through whom you claim your rights of citizenship ? A She was Mary Ross, her maiden name; she married one man named Andy Hare, and afterwards they were divorced through this arbitration.
Q You married one Mary Hare ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry her ? A August 24, I think it was, 1884.
Q Were you married to her under a Cherokee marriage license ?
A Yes sir.
Q Was that your first marriage ? A Yes sir.
Q You had never been married before ? A No sir.
Q You say your wife Mary had been previously married ?
A Yes sir.
Q Her first husband's name was, what ? A Andy Hare.
Q You say that your wife Mary, and her husband, Hare, had been divorced by arbitration ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know anything about that arbitration, of your own knowledge ? A Nothing more than, when we was talking of her marriage, I asked her if her and Hare had ever been divorced, she said not, and I told her that before we would become man and wife that she would have to have a divorce. Andy Hare made application to the circuit court; she was going, and they said there was no use going, for if she wouldn't appear a divorce would be granted by default. She had a child, and the court wouldn't give a divorce unless she was there, on account of the child, and the clerk told them to arbitrate, and they made the decision and give my wife the child, with the understanding that, if she died before the child became of age, the child would go back to him.
Q You say this arbitration dissolved the bonds of matrimony between your wife and him ? A Yes sir.
Q When was that arbitration made ? A In May, 1884.
Q It was before your marriage ? A Yes sir, a couple or three months; I think it was in May.
Q There was no divorce by the court ? A No sir.
Q That was all the divorce there was, by this arbitration ?
A That's all.
Q Who were the arbitrators ? A Ed Ratley, John Brock and George Blackbird.
Q Are any of these people living ? A Ed Ratley is living.
Q The other two are dead are they ? A Yes sir. Mr. Bird died a year after the arbitration.

Q Was that arbitration in writing, do you know ?
 A Now that's what I can't tell, it is supposed to be, and my wife has always been under the impression that it is on record.
 Q You say Mr. Hare applied to the court for a divorce ?
 A The circuit court in Saline District.
 Q He filed his petition, did he, do you know ?
 A That part of it, I don't know whether he filed a petition or not.
 Q Do you know whether any search of the records has been made ?
 A I had a lawyer at Chelsea to write to the executive clerk, and we failed to get an answer; my brother in law, Andrew Ross, he told me Hare had been there and made a search.
 Q You don't know of your own knowledge ? A No sir.
 Q Did you ever make a search ? A No sir, I never had a chance, only through this lawyer.
 Q Did he have a search made ? A No sir, he hasn't heard anything about it since he has written.
 Q He can't get any answer ? A He can't get any answer.
 Q You don't know whether there is any record of it ?
 A It seems that they searched the record.
 Q Andy Hare ? A Yes sir.
 Q Do you know if they had the records searched ?
 A Mr. Ross knows more about that than I do.
 Q Now you supposed that there was a legal divorce ?
 A Most assuredly I did, or I never would have entered into matrimony with the woman.
 Q You were married in good faith, thinking she was divorced ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q And she believed so too ? A Yes sir.
 Q Is that the only time your wife had ever been married ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q You say you had never been married before ? A No sir, I never had.
 Q Have you lived together ever since ? A Continuously.
 Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since ?
 A Yes sir, I was out once and went to Hot Springs on account of rheumatism.
 Q You have how many children ? A Six children living.
 Q Give me their names ? A John E., George O., Perry, William A., Alma J. and Mona.
 Q Where is it ? A It is Mona.
 Q It should be Mona ? A M-o-n-a is the way we spell it.

H. C. ROSS, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q What is your name ? A H. C. Ross.
 Q How old are you, Mr. Ross ? A Fifty four.
 Q What is your post office address ? A Locust Grove, I. T.
 Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A I am.
 Q Do you know William T. Jones ? A I do.
 Q Do you know his wife, Mary Jones ? A I do.
 Q How long have you known them ? A Why, I have known Mary, his wife, ever since she was a child, all her life; and I have known Mr. Jones I guess eighteen or twenty years.
 Q Do you know Andy Hare, the first husband of Mrs. Jones ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Do you know anything about the alleged divorce between them.

A No, not of my own personal knowledge, I don't; that arbitration was had right there in my neighborhood, right close. I have no recollection of being there. It was my understanding that the arbitration had been made, and the general opinion of the neighborhood was that they had been divorced.

Q Did you ever hold any official position in the Nation ?

A Yes sir.

Q What ? A Well, I have held two or three different positions, district sheriff, and I was district judge, and a member of the National Council.

Q You are a Cherokee by blood, aren't you ? A Yes sir.

Q Lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life ? A Yes sir.

Q You are a Senator at the present time ? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know, Mr. Ross, how this kind of a divorce, a divorce by arbitration, has been considered by the Cherokee people ?

A Well sir, I don't know as I can answer that.

Q Whether such a divorce is regarded as valid ?

A I suppose it must be valid; I never gave it very much thought, I thought it was alright; I had never given any thought about it, never investigated it; I thought it was alright.

Q It has been your understanding, has it, that, under the Cherokee law which provides that any dispute may be arbitrated, that such a divorce may be given ? A I thought this, that the Supreme Court may have made a ruling on that.

Q You don't know that it has ? A I don't know.

Q Do you know, Mr. Ross, whether the records of Saline District have been searched for the record of this supposed divorce by arbitration ? A I heard that they were searched at Tahlequah; I was with the Commission in October, and left two weeks before the expiration of their sitting there, and Mr. Hare came in, and I saw him afterwards. He gave me to understand that he failed to find any record, and I advised him to go to Mr. Jones and see if Mary Jones didn't have a copy of the proceedings. I don't know whether he done that or not, I understand he didn't go.

The Commission; (to applicant): Now Mr. Jones, without intimating what the Commission's opinion would be, it will be necessary for you to get a certificate of the National Secretary as to whether there is or is not a record of this arbitration.

The Commission: It is orders that a copy of this testimony be filed with a made a part of the record in the case of Andy Hare, et al, Cherokee # 2385.

Q Has he had any other wife? A He had one named Mary Koebuck.
Q Any others? A Jesse's mother, her name was Lou Patton before she married.
Q Has he had any others? A That is all I know of.
Q Who is Clara Quinton? A That was his wife, that is my step-mother.
Q You forgot to give her? A I thought I give her first.

The records of this office show that on September 10, 1900, application was made for the enrollment of, among others, Cornelius Quinton, aged 17 years, son of Jack Quinton and Mary Quinton, deceased, and a stepson of Clara Quinton; said Cornelius Quinton being identified upon the Cherokee tribal roll of 1900.

The records also show that on May 25, 1901, application was made for the enrollment of Jack Quinton and his children, among others, Cornelius Quinton, aged 17 years, whose mother's name was given as Mary Quinton, deceased; said Cornelius Quinton being identified on the 1894 Cherokee pay roll.

- Q Are you the identical Cornelius Quinton mentioned in both of these applications? A I am the one.
Q Then you were enrolled twice? A I suppose so.
Q Was your father's post office Wild Cat, Oklahoma? A Yes, sir.
Q Was your stepmother-Clara Quinton's-post office Locust Grove?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the only Cornelius Quinton who is a son of Jack and Mary Quinton and whose stepmother is Clara Quinton? A The only one.

The name of Cornelius Quinton first referred to appears upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 6167, and an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation has been selected for him.

The name of Cornelius Quinton second referred to appears upon said roll, opposite No. 25537, and no allotment selection of an allotment has been made for him.

Subject:
Duplicate enrollment of Cornelius Quinton.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to your attention the matter of the enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Cornelius Quinton. This name appears on Cherokee Census Card No. 7427 and on the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 25537. The name also appears on Cherokee Census Card No. 2398 and opposite Roll No. 6167.

In the first instance, the parents of Cornelius Quinton appear as Jack Quinton and Mary J. Quinton and in the second instance as Jack Quinton and Mary Quinton.

Application in one instance was made by Jack Quinton, the father of Cornelius, and in the other instance by Clara Quinton, his step-mother.

Copies of the testimony in the two enrollment cases, together with a copy of the testimony submitted by Cornelius Secretary - 2.

Quinton on May 12, 1908, are inclosed herewith; also, copies of the census cards referred to.

The records in this case appear to show conclusively that this is a duplicate enrollment, and as an allotment has been selected for Cornelius Quinton under Roll No. 6167, I respectfully recommend that the following notation be placed opposite No. 25837 on the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department:

"Duplication. Not entitled to allotment under this number. See Roll No. 6167."

and that I be authorized to make a similar notation on the rolls in the possession of this office.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Sam's Breakinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and two children. One child being by her present marriage and the other by a former marriage. She is identified on the orphan roll in 1894 and she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a Native Cherokee, under her married name at that time and with a note identifying her under her maiden name. Her former husband is dead and died before the present marriage. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood under her present name of Lydia Parkin. The two children Samuel Wickliff, the child of her first marriage, and Rena May Parkin, the child of her present marriage, are both too young to be upon any roll. When she presents the Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of these children and of their being alive at this time, they will also be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

In the matter of her application for the enrollment of her husband. Her personal examination has also been taken. It is shown that he, a white man, was married to her one year ago last March too late to permit his enrollment under Cherokee law, and the application for his enrollment is rejected. He is desired to supply the Commission with his marriage license and certificate in order that the record in his case may be complete.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he accurately prepared the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and two children. One child being by her present marriage and the other by a former marriage. She is identified on the orphan roll in 1894 and she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee, under her married name at that time and with a note identifying her under her maiden name. Her former husband is dead and died before the present marriage. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood under her present name of Lydia Parkin. The two children Samuel Wickliff, the child of her first marriage, and Rose May Parkin, the child of her present marriage, are both the young to be upon any roll. When she presents the Commission with duly authenticated certificates of the birth of these children and of their being alive at this time, they will also be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

In the matter of her application for the enrollment of her husband. His personal examination has also been taken. It is shown that he, a white man, was married to her one year ago last March, too late to permit his enrollment under Cherokee law, and the application for his enrollment is rejected. He is desired to supply the Commission with his marriage license and certificate in order that the record in his case may be complete.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and three children. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The first of her children, Dave Fisher, a child of an Indian with whom she lived before she took the name of Hicks, is identified with her on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. The next child, Arch Hicks, is identified with her on the roll of 1896, as a native Cherokee, and both of these children will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The applicant is wholly undertain as to the age of the youngest child who bears the name of William Fisher, and whose father she states is the first Indian with whom she lived. It is not found upon the roll of 1896 and is presumed to be too young to be upon that roll. When she supplies the Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

SUBJECT:
Enrollment of Lucy Ann
Weaver, a Cherokee.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Lucy Ann Weaver, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, enrolled opposite No. 23342. No application to select an allotment of land for this citizen having been made and an affidavit having been executed by Marcus A. Weaver, father, on November 5, 1903, and by Samantha Weaver, mother, on December 27, 1903, showing her death to have occurred on August 26, 1902, an investigation was begun to confirm this fact, and on December 6, 1909, the testimony of Samantha Weaver and Marcus A. Weaver was taken at their home at which time they acknowledged having executed the affidavit in question but stated that they were not then sure as to the correctness of the date named therein, and refused to make affidavit that she died either before or after September 1, 1902. Marcus A. Weaver, however, testified that the coffin in which this child was interred was purchased from an Undertaker by the name of Maupin, and on January 27, 1910, a representative of this office examined the books of W. S. Maupin, a merchant of Blue Jacket, and found therein an entry showing that on August 26, 1902, there was purchased for Ah Weaver one coffin and one pair of white slippers.

On February 4, 1910, Samantha A. Weaver, mother of Lucy Ann Weaver, deceased, was notified by registered mail of the information secured by this office as to the date of the death of her daughter, and of the provisions of Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716) that no person whose name was on the final roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and advised that she might within a stipulated time appear at this office and show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation be placed on the roll showing that the said Lucy Ann Weaver was not entitled to participate in a division of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation.

This notice was received as is evidenced by the return of the registry receipt properly signed but no appearance has been made.

No. 1.

The record in this case appears clearly to establish that Lucy Ann Weaver died prior to September 1, 1902, and I therefore recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite the name of Lucy Ann Weaver, No. 23342:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902, not entitled to land or money."

Copies of the record pertaining to the death of this citizen are enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

Acting Commissioner.

Cherokee 2410.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, February 4, 1910.

Mrs. Samantha Weaver,
Rose, Oklahoma.

Madam:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your daughter, Lucy Ann Weaver, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 23342, died on August 26, 1902.

The act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Samantha Weaver - 2.

You are, therefore, notified that on or before March 7, 1910, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Lucy Ann Weaver on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Q He is living in Georgia, is he? A Yes sir.

Q And your sister died in Georgia? A Yes sir.

Q When were the children brought out here? A They were brought here about '99. I think they were brought here when she registered.

Q But she took them back? A Yes, the children are not here; they are in Georgia.

Q They have been in Georgia ever since their mother died? A Yes.

Q And living with their father? A One of them is with the grandmother or aunt; their father is at a different place.

Q How big a farm was it? A We had something like one hundred and sixty-five acres in cultivation.

Q How much did she own - did you own it in common between you? A Yes sir, we owned it, two or three of us. And we had some two hundred acres of grass land.

Q What did she do with her share of it when she went away and when she got married? A It remained the same.

Q Did you pay her rent for it? A Yes sir.

Q Did she own any of the stock? A Yes sir, she owned some of the stock. We had the farm together one year. I hired the farm and paid her part of it.

Q Did you pay her rent or part pay her a share of the produce, or how? A I paid her one-third.

Q She got the profits out of the farm? A Yes sir.

Q Every year? A Yes sir, every year.

Q Did she own any other property besides that? A No sir, none that I know of.

Q She never had any household goods besides what were in your home? A No sir.

Q She never took any of these with her when she went to Georgia?

A No sir, none whatever.

Q Her husband never has claimed citizenship here at all? A No sir, he never claimed citizenship.

Q How long had your sister had an interest in your farm? A Ever since her mother died.

Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.

Q Is he a citizen of the nation? A No sir.

Q Never has claimed citizenship? A He married after he left this country.

Q He is not living in the nation? A No sir, he is not living in the nation.

WARRANT OF THE TRIBAL COURT

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF

In the matter of the application of Carrie V. Reed for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Mary J. and Frederick W. Reed, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on September 10, 1900, Carrie V. Reed appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Mary J. and Frederick W. Reed, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, May 15, 1903.

The evidence shows that the applicants Mary J. and Frederick W. Reed were born since 1880 and are the minor children of the applicant Carrie V. Reed, who is identified as a native Cherokee on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll by the name of Carrie Walker, and that said Carrie V. Reed, Mary J. Reed and Frederick W. Reed are also identified on the 1880 Cherokee census roll. The said Frederick W. Reed is too young to appear on any of the tribal rolls, but is identified by a birth record which is a part of the record herein.

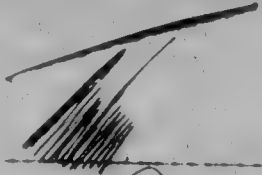

The evidence further shows that the said Carrie V. Reed was born in the Cherokee Nation and resided there until about 1884. Her mother having died in 1883, the said Carrie V. Reed was taken to North Carolina in 1884 for the purpose of attending school. In 1885 she married and from that time until her death she has lived with her husband in Georgia. She has, however, always claimed the Cherokee Nation as her home and since 1883 she has retained an interest in an improved farm in the Cherokee Nation, from which she regularly received rents. She has also owned some live stock in said Nation. The said minor children having been born during the life time of their mother and while she was a citizen, acquired her status and residence. The evidence further shows that the said Carrie V. Reed died on April 24, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902 (31 Stat., 711), provides as follows:

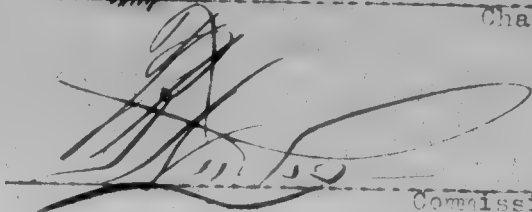

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission, following the decision of the Department in the cases of Joseph D. Yeargan et al. (A. T. No. 290-1903), and Clement A. Clarke et al. (A. T. No. 1370-1903), that the said Mary W. Reed and Frederick W. Reed should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered. It is further ordered that the application for the enrollment of Carrie W. Reed should be dismissed, under the provisions of law above quoted.

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is acknowledged of Commission's letter of July 22 enclosing record in Cherokee application 2423, Carrie V. Reed, et al, and requesting that further testimony be obtained as to the residence of said Carrie V. Reed up to the time of her death, and as to what property or effects she owned in the Cherokee Nation and when she acquired them.

The jacket and record in this case is returned herewith and attention is called to testimony in this case taken May 18, 1903, which was a part of the record returned to this office. That testimony covers very fully the points named in the Commission's letter and it is presumed was overlooked when the Commission's letter of July 22 was prepared.

SPECIAL.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 5, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 U.S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decisions in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights with Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office, this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take ^{the} action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

G. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Cherokee Case #2426.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Doc L. Denney as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

The record in this case shows that on September 10, 1900, Doc L. Denney appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for his enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Claremore, Indian Territory, on October 31, 1900, and again at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 20, 1902.

The evidence shows that Doc L. Denney, a white man, was married to one, Amelia Chambers, a Cherokee citizen by blood and is identified with her on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 as an intermarried white person. It is further shown that his said wife died, and thereafter he married her sister, Lettie. She having died he was again married to one, Margaret Frost, a white woman, from whom he was subsequently divorced, in 1897.

Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of Cherokee citizens "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws."

Section 666 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892), is as follows:

"Should any man or woman, a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man or woman, or person, (as the case may be), having no rights of Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case, all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this act shall cease."

The evidence further shows that subsequent to the applicant's divorce from his said wife, Margaret Frost, in 1897, he married one, Ailsie Nippers, a Cherokee citizen by blood. Said marriage was not under authority of a Cherokee marriage license, nor in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and if so, applicant could acquire no rights by virtue of said marriage, it having been consummated subsequent to December 16, 1895.

It is the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Doc L. Denney as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is, therefore, so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report of Mr. Bixby, former chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 9, 1903, transmitting record in the matter of the application of Doc L. Denny for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commission's decision dated March 2, 1903, rejecting the application.

The applicant, a white man, claims the right to enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by reason of his marriage on December 25, 1875, to Amelia Chambers, a Cherokee citizen by blood. The record shows that the applicant's wife Amelia died, and thereafter he married her sister Lettie. The latter died in July, 1879, and thereafter, in January, 1884, the applicant married Margaret Frost, a white woman, from whom he was divorced in 1879, in January, 1894, he again married a Cherokee citizen named Alice Nipper, who is a cousin to his first and second wife.

Under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., versus the United States, the applicant is not entitled to enrollment, and it is recommended that his application be denied and the decision of the Commission adverse to him be approved.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I had heard that the weather in the north was harsh, but I didn't realize just how cold it would be. The wind was biting, and the sun felt like a distant star. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of William G. Brown for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on July 30, 1900, William G. Brown appeared before the Commission at Bunch, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The other parties to the application are differently classified and are not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on February 17, 1902.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicant, William G. Brown claims the right of enrollment by virtue of his alleged admission to Cherokee citizenship by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896. It is claimed that he was admitted along with his wife, Martha W. Brown, whose application was included, as the record shows, in the case of Eljerrey Fleetwood, et. al. vs. Cherokee Nation, Commission No. 5572.

The proceedings in that case have been made a part of the record herein. It appears therefrom that certain parties made application to this Commission on the seventh day of September, 1896 for admission to Cherokee citizenship, basing their claim on the possession of Cherokee blood derived from a common ancestor, Hosea Morgan.

The name of W. G. Brown does not appear in the petitions accompanying the application, neither does it appear that this applicant possesses, or claims to possess any Cherokee blood.

The docket entry shows that one W. C. Brown was included among those admitted by the Commission in the above entitled case. It is supposed that this W. C. Brown might be the applicant in this case.

The applicant, however, states that his name is William Gentry Brown and he does not offer any satisfactory proof that he ever made application to this Commission in 1896. The only evidence on this point is the testimony of the applicant that he gave his name to his brother-in-law with the intention that it should be included with that of his wife and the other parties named in the Fleetwood case above cited. There is no direct evidence showing that his name was so included. His identification with the W. C. Brown named in the decision of the Commission does not therefore appear to be very satisfactorily established.

Furthermore, an appeal to the United States Court in the Indian Territory was taken from the decision of the Commission in the Fleetwood case, as appears from the Commission's docket thereof. The appeal is identified by the number and title as the case now under discussion. The petition for appeal contains only the names embraced in the application made to the Commission and does not include all of the names appearing upon the Commission's docket of the case, one of the names omitted being that of W. G. Brown.

It is not necessary, however, that all of the names should be specified in the petition for appeal. Such appeal was from the decision of the Commission in the case of Eljerry Fleetwood, et. al. vs. Cherokee Nation, and as heretofore observed, the appeal was properly identified by title and number. The main ground of appeal, as appears from the record, was that the common ancestor through whom all the applicants claimed was not a Cherokee, and therefore, in view of the nature of the case, the appeal must necessarily have had reference to all the claimants therein.

From an examination of the judgment of the United States Court in the Indian Territory for the Northern District, and the report of the Master in Chancery to whom the case was referred, the name of W. C. Brown is not found among those admitted or rejected by the judgment of the Court. Neither does the name of W. G. Brown appear on such record.

The Commission is further of the opinion that, in any event, the applicant, William G. Brown, has failed to identify himself as the W. C. Brown named in the docket entry of this Commission in the Fleetwood case already cited.

It would seem from the testimony that the applicant regarded his right to citizenship as contingent upon that of his wife. There is no evidence, however, that he was ever married to his wife Martha under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, nor is there any evidence to show that he was ever re-married to her after her admission to citizenship by the United States Court.

The applicant states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation "in and out" for the past twenty-three or twenty-four years, and that he voted in the Presidential election of 1896.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application of William G. Brown for his enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

Department of the Interior,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON. July 29, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Acting Chairman of the Commission, dated July 16, 1902, transmitting the record relative to the application of William G. Brown for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation. July 16, 1902, the Commission held that William G. Brown was not entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of said nation.

The applicant appears to claim his right to enrollment by virtue of having been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 under the provisions of the Act of June 10, 1896. From the record in this case it appears that one W. C. or William C. Brown was admitted to citizenship by the Commission in 1896, but that there is no record showing that William G. or William Gentry Brown was so admitted to citizenship. The applicant does not by his testimony or any papers filed by him show that he is identical with the W. G. or William G. Brown who was admitted by the Commission in 1896. From the Commission's decision in the Fleetwood case to which W. G. or William G. Brown appears to have been a party the Cherokee Nation took an appeal to the Court. The name of William G. Brown or W. G. Brown, the record shows, is not found among those admitted or rejected by judgment of the court. It also shows that the name W. G. or William G. Brown does not appear in said judgment.

In the application for re-admission and enrollment in the Fleetwood case addressed to the Commission appears the name William D. Brown, and in the petition wherein mention of certain affidavits is made there appears the name W. G. Brown, his affidavit having been marked "Exhibit 19". In that part of the petition where the names and ages of the petitioners and the relation they bear to the principal petitioner is given there appears the name William D. Brown mentioned as above stated and W. G. Brown mentioned once are not one and the same persons. In fact W. G.

Brown's affidavit marked "Exhibit 19" shows that William D. Brown is his child.

From the records in this case it is evident that one W. C. or William C., or W. G. Brown made application to the Commission for citizenship and that he was admitted to citizenship; that if any appeal was taken from the decision of the Commission admitting said Brown he was not mentioned in the judgment of the court as having been rejected or admitted. The decision of the Commission therefore in admitting such said Brown to citizenship stands.

This office does not believe that the application of said Brown should be finally passed upon at this time, but that the case should be returned to the Commission with direction to give the applicant an opportunity to show that he applied to the Commission for enrollment in 1896, and that he and the W. C. Brown who was admitted to citizenship in 1896 are one and the same person.

There is nothing in the papers so far as the office has been able to discover which shows that anybody by the name of W. C., or William C. Brown, applied to the Commission for enrollment in connection with the Fleetwood case.

The Commission should also be instructed, the office believes, to use its best endeavors to determine whether this applicant and the W. C. Brown admitted by it in 1896, are identical.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

A. C. Tenner,
Acting Commissioner.

WASHINGTON.

ITD.4603-1902.

August 16, 1902.

L. R. S.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

July 29, 1902, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs transmitted the papers in the case involving the application of William G. Brown for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, - D 61. You rejected the application July 16, 1902.

It appears that applicant's wife and children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, in 1896, which decision, as to them, was approved by the United States court in 1899. The applicant's name is not on any roll of said nation. He claims that he was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by your Commission under the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), with his wife, Martha W. Brown, whose application was included in the case of Eljerry Fleetwood et al. versus the Cherokee Nation. The docket entry of your Commission shows that one W. C. Brown, a citizen by adoption, was included among those admitted by you in 1896 in said case. The name, however, of W. G. Brown, or W. C. Brown, does not appear in the petition accompanying the application for admission. You state that the applicant does not offer any satisfactory proof that he ever made application to the Commission in 1896; that the only evidence on this point is the testimony of the applicant that he gave his name to his brother-in-law with the intention that it should be included with that of his wife and the other parties named in the Fleetwood case; that there is no direct evidence showing that his name was so included; that his identification with the W. C. Brown named in the decision of the Commission does not appear to be very satisfactorily established.

An appeal was taken to the United States court by the nation from the decision of the Commission in the Fleetwood case. The petition for appeal contained only the names embraced in the application made to the Commission, and does not, you state, include all the names appearing upon your docket of the case, one of the names omitted being that of W. C. Brown.

It appears, as stated by you, that in the judgment of the court and in the report of the master in chancery neither the name of W. C. Brown or W. G. Brown is found among those admitted or rejected by the judgment of the court.

You held that the applicant, William Gentry Brown, has failed to identify himself as the W. C. or William C. Brown admitted by you in 1896.

The Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs reporting in the matter July 29, 1902, states that it is evident that W. C. Brown or W. G. Brown made application to your Commission for admission to citizenship in 1896, and that he was admitted; that if an appeal was taken by the nation from your decision admitting said Brown, he was not mentioned in the judgment of the court as having been rejected or admitted. He recommends, however, that the case be remanded to you, with direction to give the applicant an opportunity to show that he applied to the Commission for enrollment in 1896, and that he and the W. C. Brown who was admitted to citizenship in 1896 are one and the same person.

It would appear to be impossible for the applicant to furnish any further testimony throwing light of any importance upon the matter. There is no question that applicant is the husband of Martha W. Brown, admitted by the Commission, and there is nothing to suggest that any other person with name similar to applicant's, except one of his children, William D. Brown, also admitted by your Commission in 1896, was an applicant for enrollment in connection with the Fleetwood case. As your docket entry shows that W. C. Brown was admitted to citizenship by your Commission in 1896 in connection with the Fleetwood case, it must be concluded that such a person was an applicant, in some manner, for admission in that case, and the Department believes it fair to presume, considering the relationship to several of the applicants and other circumstances in the case, that W. C. Brown, admitted by your Commission, and the applicant are identical.

As the Department concurs in the views of the Acting Commissioner that your decision as to said Brown, in 1896, became final as there was no judgment of the court adverse to such finding, your decision rejecting the application of William Gentry

Brown is hereby reversed. You are authorized to enroll said Brown should no further objection appear. A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter is inclosed.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan
Acting Secretary.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that before your application for the enrollment of your grand-son, Joel Randolph, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that further testimony be introduced establishing the residence of this child in the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission will not determine the right of these children to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of December 14, acknowledging receipt of a notice from the Commission that further testimony, as to his residence, is required in connection with your application for the enrollment of your grandson, Joel Randolph. You ask if you can wait until you appear at the Cherokee Land Office for the purpose of selecting allotments for yourself and family, before giving this testimony.

In reply, you are advised that the testimony required should be introduced at the earliest possible date, but, if it will be impossible for you to introduce this testimony prior to your appearance at the Land Office for the purpose of selecting your allotments, you can give such testimony at that time.

In the meantime, however, the Commission cannot forward the name of your grandson to the Secretary of the Interior for the Department's approval of his final enrollment.

Respectfully,

Gentlemen:

There is enclosed herewith a letter dated January 27, 1903, from Bessey & LaHay, relative to the enrollment of Florence and Sudie Hoyt as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

On September 10, 1900, the step-father of these children, David B. Williams, applied to this Commission for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and at that time they were listed on regular Cherokee Card No. 2440. The final enrollment of these two children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on November 14, 1902, their names appearing upon the schedule of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation as numbers 6247 and 6248.

The letter from Bessey & LaHay is referred to the Commission for a reply as to the status of these two children as Choctaws.

above named persons was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Claremore Messenger", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Claremore, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, 1906, and the first issue in "The Claremore Messenger" was on March 2, 1906. In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his or her heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information contained in the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, as Susie Scraper, and the name of his father upon the authenticated roll of 1880, as Joseph Rowe: Satisfactory proof having been made as to the residence of these parties, and all of them being duly identified according to the name and number of the rolls, as indicated in the testimony, the said Richard L. Rowe, Eliza B. Rowe, ~~Call~~ W., Grover C., Maggie E., Lydia M., Fatta M. and George Rowe will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood; satisfactory proof having been made that the said George Rowe is the son and lineal descendant of Joseph Rowe and Susie Scraper, whose names are identified on the roll of 1880.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

- Q State your name? A Annie Batt.
Q How old are you? A About forty-six.
Q What is your postoffice? A Locust Grove.
Q Are you a full-blood Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q What was your father's name? A Osie Dragger.
Q What is your mother's name? A Malinda Dragger.
Q You married a man by the name of Batt, did you? A Yes sir.
Q When was that? A I don't know just how long it has been.
About twenty years, I guess.
Q About twenty years ago? A Yes sir.
Q Who did you first marry - what was the name of your first husband? A Tom Walker.
Q When did you marry Tom Walker, long ago? A Yes, long ago; I was only fifteen years old then.
Q How long did you live with him? A Seven years.
Q Now, who did you marry the second time? A Tom Batt.
Q Have you just been married twice? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever known as Clawseen? A Yes sir, I was with my uncle; that was my uncle, and I stayed with him after my man died.
Q After Tom Walker died? A Yes sir.
Q You stayed with your uncle? A I did then.
Q What was his name? A Clawseen.
Q What was his first name? A I don't know. Clawseen is all I know.
Q Was he a full-blood? A Yes.
Q Where was he living at that time? A At the Illinois River.
Q In what district? A Goingsnake.
Q Do you remember when the census takers took the roll of 1880? A No.
Q About how old were you when you were living with your uncle, Clawseen? About twenty or thereabout? A It must be about twenty-one may be.
Q You never married anybody else except those two men, Tom Walker and Tom Batt? A Yes, that is all.
Q When did you marry Tom Batt? A It has been about twenty years ago.
Q Is he living? A No, he is dead.
Q When did he die? A He has been dead about nine years.
Q You never married anybody since he died? A No sir.
Q Were you on the roll of 1895 as Annie Mounts - did you ever have that name? A No.
Q Did you ever live with anybody by the name of Mounts? A No.
Q What district were you living in seven years ago? Goingsnake?
A Yes, Goingsnake.
Q Have you lived in Goingsnake all the time? A Since I was a little child.
Q Who were you living with seven years ago, after your husband Tom Batt died who did you live with? A I lived with my cousin; I stayed with my cousin.
Q What was his name? A Jackson.
Q Do you know anyone by the name of Mounts? A He married a Mounts.

2-Annie Batt-

- Q He married a Mounts? A His wife was named Annie Mounts.
Q Was she a Cherokee? A No, she was a white woman.
Q Did you draw strip money in 1894? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you draw it? A At Tahlequah.
Q You drew it yourself? A Yes sir, me and my little boy.
Q Did you sign for it yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Signed your name Annie Batt? A Yes sir.
Q What was your cousin's first name - Jackson? A Still Jackson.
Q And at the time you were living with him seven years ago he was married to a woman by the name of Annie Mounts? A Yes sir.
Q When was your cousin Jackson married to Annie Mounts? A I couldn't hardly tell you how long it has been; why, they lived together about sixteen years and he died this New Years.
Q Was he divorced from Annie? A No.
Q Is she still living? A Yes sir, she is still living.
Q And she has been enrolled, has she? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir, she is a white woman.
Q They lived together sixteen years, did they? A Yes sir.
Q And her name was Annie Mounts before Jackson married her? A Yes sir.
Q And she is a white woman, you say? A Yes sir.

Upon examination of the rolls it appears that Annie, the wife of Still Jackson, is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 at page 823, No. 100, as Annie Jackson. It is evident, therefore, that the Annie Mounts on page 769, No. 1405, is not the wife of Still Jackson.

- Q Now, you say you have gone by the name of Annie Batt ever since your second man died? A Yes, that is what I put on the roll.
Q You don't remember when they were taking the census of 1896? A No.
Q Do you remember when Henry Or ittenden and Watto Whitwire were around taking the census? A I guess I do.
Q You remember of them coming to your cousin's house? A Yes sir.
Q Did you give in your name along with the others? A Yes sir.
Q And were living there then? A Yes sir.
Q Did you give your name as Annie Batt? A Yes sir.
Q How old were you seven years ago? A I am forty-six now, I guess.
Q There wasn't any other Annie Mounts in Goingsnake District that you know of? A No.

Applicant has heretofore been identified on the 1896 roll as Annie Mounts, and the identification may be correct, although it is difficult to verify the same.

- Q Your husbands were both Cherokees were they? A Yes sir.
Q And they lived in the Cherokee Nation with you? A Yes sir.
Q And you have lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes sir.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a Native Cherokee, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. He is evidently a full blood. His wife is a white woman. She is identified with him on the roll of 1896 and they have ~~two~~ one child, Bird, identified with them on that roll which child is now dead. It is not established conclusively however that he and his wife were married in time for her to be entitled for enrollment under the Cherokee law of 1896. The applicant states that he can produce a certificate of his marriage. For the present the application for his wife will be placed upon a doubtful card to await the certificate of marriage and the further consideration of the application for her by the Commission.

Archilla Baldrige---2.

The fact of their marriage, however, is conclusively shown by the enrollment of his wife with him in 1896, and thereafter as to the application for their two children, Swimmer and Inez M. Baldrige, both are too young to be upon any roll. When he supplies the Commission with duly authenticated certificates of the births of these two children, they will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

---ooo000ooo---

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes, thereof.

Four copies of this testimony to go with Jack Wall's card, Cherokee.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., Sept. 10, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John Deerhead for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, he testified as follows, through official interpreter, Simon R. Walkingstick:

Q What is your full name? A John Deerhead.

Q How old are you? A Twenty-five.

Q What is your postoffice? A Chouteau.

Q What district do you live in? A Saline District.

Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Himself and his wife, and he says though that she has got some children by some other man.

Q How many children.

Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Lived in the Nation all his life.

Q How long has he lived in Saline? A Born and raised there.

Q Does he know the name of his father? A Lewis Deerhead.

Q Dead or alive? A Dead.

Q How long has he been dead? A Been dead about thirteen years.

Q Name of his mother? A Nellie Deerhead.

Q Dead or alive? A Dead.

Q How long has she been dead? A About eight years.

Q Are you a full-blood? A Yes, sir. Q Is your wife a full-blood? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is your wife? A She is forty-three.

Q What is her name? A Lizzie Deerhead.

Q How long have you been married? A They have been married four years.

Q What was her name when he married her? A Lizzie Wall.

LIZZIE DEERHEAD, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testified as follows.

Simon R. Walkingstick, interpreter:

Q What is your full name? A Lizzie Deerhead.

Q What was your name in 1880? A Lizzie Backbone.

Q Are you the wife of this man here, John Deerhead? A Yes, sir.

Q What are the names of the two children that you and he want to enroll? A Polly Backbone, about eighteen years old.

Q What is the name of the next child? A Jack Wall, about twelve years old.

Q Are these children full-bloods? A Yes, sir.

Q Are they both living at this time? A Yes, sir.

1880 roll for applicant, page 626 #310 John Deerhead, Saline Dist.

1880 roll for wife, page 73 #370 Lizzie Backbone, Cooweescoowee.

1896 roll, page 986 #280 John Deerhead Saline Dist.

1896 roll for wife, and name not found.

1896 roll for children, page 977 #30, Pollie Backbone, Saline Dist.

1896 roll and 1894 roll examined for the other child, Jack Wall, and name not found.

Q Ask this woman if she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all of her life? A Yes, sir.

Q Ask her if these children have lived in the Cherokee Nation all of their lives? A Yes, sir.

Q Ask her if they are both full-bloods? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two step-children, the latter being the children of his wife before his marriage to her; the applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, and his wife is identified on the roll of 1880 as a Cherokee, under the name she bore at that time; both of them are evidently full-blood Cherokees and they will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood; the child Pelly Backbone is identified on the roll of 1896, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; the child Jack Wall, who is said, like the balance of these applicants, to be a full-blood Cherokee, is not identified upon any roll; there is reason to believe that this child is entitled to Cherokee rights by birth and residence, and therefore the application for the enrollment of the child Jack Wall will for the present be placed upon a doubtful card; and the applicants are enjoined to produce some information that will lead to the proper identification of this child.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, September 10, 1900, Polly Tadpole appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made application for the enrollment of herself and one George Coffee, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The application for the enrollment of said Polly Tadpole has been heretofore disposed of and her right to enrollment will not be considered at this time.

Since the application was received for the enrollment of George Coffee as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, the Commission and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes have diligently sought information which would enable them to determine whether or not said applicant was living September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not he was on that date entitled to enrollment as such citizen. No information has been secured tending to show the status of said George Coffee on September 1, 1902.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of George Coffee as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Commissioner.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 1, 1903.

Polly Tadpole,

Choteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that before your application for the enrollment of George Coffee as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that further testimony be introduced identifying the parents of this child upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation or other proof of their citizenship. Testimony is also required as to the residence in the Cherokee Nation of the said George Coffee.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission will not determine the right of this child to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of January 8, asking to be advised if you can be permitted to make an allotment selection for your minor child, Osborn R. Tucker, you are advised the records of this office show that the name of your child has not yet been placed upon a schedule of citizens of the Cherokee Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior. The records seem to show, however that your child is, prima facie, entitled to enrollment, and if this be correct, you will be permitted to appear at any time in the near future and make an application for the selection of an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation for your said child, and in the event of his final enrollment, the land for which you apply will be allotted to him.

You will be promptly informed when your child is finally enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Q Your wife is put down on the roll of 1880 as thirty-five years old, is that right? A He thinks that is probably correct.
Q Then I will make her age at present fifty-five? A Yes sir.
Q What does that word Enaugly mean in Cherokee? A Well he says he don't know that it means anything in particular, ~~it means~~ he says there are two of them of the same name, and they gave him the name of Enaugly to distinguish them.
Q Ask him if he wants to be known now as Enaugly Blackfox?
A He would like to have it go down as Enola Blackfox.
Q Has his wife also lived in the Cherokee nation all her life?
A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and his wife; both of them are identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as native Cherokees; they are full-bloods, and they have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives and they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

James Blackfox,

Salina, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of a birth affidavit in the matter of the application for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Charlotte Blackfox, infant child of yourself and Ollie Blackfox.

This affidavit is in due form but was received subsequent to July 1, 1902, at which time, under instructions from the Secretary of the Interior, this Commission ceased to receive applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; consequently no action can be taken upon this application at this time, but same will be held pending action by the tribe upon the Cherokee agreement. Should the same be ratified your child, Charlotte, will be listed for enrollment.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Mike Baldridge.--2.

Q What is your post office? A Wagoner.

Q Are you the father of this applicant here, Mike Baldridge? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you marry his mother after 1880? A I do not know, I have a certificate here in my pocket.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The witness present a duly authenticated license of his marriage to Martha Fulton on the sixth day of April, 1892, issued by the Clerk of the United States Court, and the certificate shows that they were married on the date given, by William Nelson, United States Commissioner. This is accepted as satisfactory proof of that marriage and it is returned to the witness.

Q This marriage license and certificate shows that you were married in 1892; that does not cover the birth of your son, who gives his age at 18 years. Were you married to this young man's mother under Cherokee law before his birth? A No; I was married before I was married to this wife.

Q I am talking about your marriage to his mother? A Yes, I was married to his mother.

Q When were you married to his mother? A That shows.

Q This certificate shows that you were married after this boy was born; is that the only marriage you ever had with his mother? A No, sir, I was married before that.

Q When were you first married to this boy's mother? A It has been a good while. I could not tell just exactly when it was.

Q When did your first wife die? A About 16 years ago.

Q This boy is 18 years old? A It may have been longer than that.

Q Did you marry this boy's mother before he was born, or did you marry your present wife after he was born? A After the boy was born.

Q You did not marry her until after he was born? A Yes, sir.

Q I want to understand whether you were married when he was born?

A We were living together as husband and wife.

Q Was your first wife dead then? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your first wife dead before you ever begin to live with this woman? A No, Sir.

Q Was your first wife dead when this boy was born? A Yes, sir; well living with another man.

Q Had you ever been divorced with from her? A No, sir.

Q Took up living with this boy's mother before your first wife was dead? A Yes, sir.

Q You did that without getting any divorce from your wife? A Yes, sir, didn't have any divorce.

J. L. BAUGH, Representative of the Cherokee Nation:

Q Is this boy's mother a white woman or Cherokee? A White woman.

1880 enrollment; page 737, #187, Johnson Baldridge, Tahlequah.

1880 enrollment; page 737, #188, Anna Baldrige, Tahlequah.

1896 enrollment; page 1141, #304, Mike Baldrige, Tahlequah.

Com'r Breckinridge:

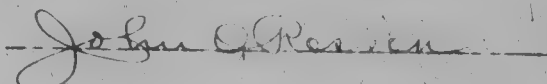

The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896. His marriage license and certificate, filed herewith, show that he was married in 1899. His child is too young to be upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant's father, too, is identified on the roll of 1880. His wife at that time is shown by the roll to have been named Anna. This applicant's mother is named Martha. The applicant's father, as set forth in the testimony, states that while his real wife Anna was living, and without their being divorced, he began living with the mother of this applicant, who is a white woman, and that the applicant was born out of that union previous to the death of his father's real wife; therefore he is illegitimate offspring of the white woman. His mother at the time of his birth possessed no rights of a Cherokee. The application, therefore, of the applicant for his own enrollment, is rejected. His application for the enrollment of his wife would be rejected regardless of the time when she married him, as she is a white woman. The testimony also shows that she never married him until 1899, too late for the acquirement of the right to citizenship by intermarriage. Therefore the application for her enrollment is rejected, as is the application also for the enrollment of their child, Mike Baldrige Jr. That is all. We have no authority under the law to enroll yourself, your wife, or your child.

Mike Baldrige---3.

---ooo000ooo---

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Taylor Soldier---2.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He is evidently a full blood, and owing to confusion of names he cannot be clearly identified on the roll of 1880. His wife is identified on the roll of 1880 under her maiden name and on the roll of 1896 under her married name. They have been married eight years. Both of them are natives of the Cherokee Nation, and they have lived there all of their lives. Their child, Annie, is identified under her Cherokee name on the roll of 1896. The applicant and his wife and this child will now be listed for enrolment as Cherokees by blood. The child Martha is too young to be upon any roll. When they supply the Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of this child's birth, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

---ooo000ooo---

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. He is evidently a full blood Cherokee, and he states that his wife is a full blood Cherokee. He ~~has lived~~ is identified on the roll of 1894 and on the roll of 1896. He is identified under the name that his mother usually bears. Owing to the confusion of names he cannot be clearly identified on the roll of 1880. His wife is identified as a Native Cherokee on the roll of 1896, but owing to confusion of names, her identification cannot be clearly established on the roll of 1880; but by personal testimony she is identified as the daughter of Blackbear and as a full blood Cherokee, and as being the wife of the applicant, and the mother of the child for whom application is made. The applicant and his wife will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood, they being native Cherokee Nation, and having there lived all their lives, and when they present a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of their child, Jemie, who is not old enough to be on any roll, this child will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She is evidently a full blood and she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. Her change of name is established by her own and her brother's testimony, as due to her living with her husband as his wife, and it is also shown that by him, from whom she is now separated, she has one child. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, and when she supplies the Commission with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of her child, Felix, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Sam'l Greenbridge:

The applicant alleges for the enrollment of herself and child. She contemplated applying for the enrollment of her husband who is absent in the Philippine Islands in the Government service, but found that application was made for him by his father on a former occasion, when he was admitted to enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her marriage to her husband is established by the certificate of the Clergymen, cited in the testimony, and filed herewith, and it is shown to have taken place on May 14, 1897. They have lived together as husband and wife ever since, except when necessarily separated by his absence in the military service of the Government. Her husband is duly identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1890 as a native Cherokee. Their child, John M., is too young to be upon any roll, being only two years of age, but when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Now, in regard to the application for the enrollment of the applicant herself: It is held that her marriage in 1897 was too late to entitle her to acquirement of citizenship by reason of a Cherokee marriage under the well known law of 1895, but for the consideration of any questions of right that may arise in the construction of this law, her application for her own enrollment at this time, will be placed upon a doubtful card, and will be subject to future consideration of the Commissioner.

Miss Jessie Starnes,

Pryor, Oklahoma.

Madam:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your mother, Maggie Starnes, whose name appears opposite No. 6338 on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood, died on November 25, 1900.

The act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Jessie Starnes - 2.

You are, therefore, notified that on or before February 21, 1910, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Maggie Starnes on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Respectfully,

WSDM (LBA)

Acting Commissioner.

Register.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, March 2, 1900.

SUBJECT:
Enrollment of Maggie Starnes,
a Cherokee:

.....

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Maggie Starnes, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, enrolled opposite No. 6339. No application to select an allotment on behalf of this citizen having been made an investigation was begun to determine the date of her death and on June 7, 1900, the testimony of Jessie Starnes, a daughter of Maggie Starnes, was taken, in which she stated that her mother died in November, a day or two after Thanksgiving, in the same year of her application for enrollment. She also stated that her mother was taken to Murreks Springs, Arkansas, the night following her application, which is shown by the records to have been September 11, 1900. This testimony shows that Maggie Starnes lived a little over two months after leaving and that she was buried near the Orphan Asylum on Grand River.

On November 19, 1900, a representative of this office visited this cemetery and found therein a tomb stone showing that Margaret E. Starnes was born in March 1867 and died on November 23, 1900.

On January 22, 1910, Jessie Starnes, daughter of Maggie Starnes, was notified by registered mail of the information secured by this office as to the date of the death of her mother and of the provisions of Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 761) that no person whose name was on the final roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and advised that she might within a stipulated time appear at this office and show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation be placed on the roll showing that the said Maggie Starnes was not entitled to participate in a division of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation.

This notice was received as is evidenced by the return of the registry receipt properly signed but no appearance has been made.

The record in this case appears clearly to establish that Maggie Starnes died prior to September 1, 1902, and I therefore recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite the name of Maggie Starnes, No. 6339: "Died prior to

No. 3.

September 1, 1902, not entitled to land or money."

Copies of the record pertaining to the death of this citizen are enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner
of Indian Affairs.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of March 2, 1910, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the death of Maggie Starnes, whose name appears opposite No. 6338 on the final approved rolls of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that the above named person died prior to September 1, 1902. Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L. 716) provides that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on the Cherokee roll, and who died prior to September 1, 1902. It is recommended, therefore, that opposite the name of Maggie Starnes upon the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, there be placed the notation-

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized

Sir:—

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of recent date giving information relative to the enrollment of your wife and enclosing a certificate in the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation of your daughter Bertha H.

From the information contained in your letter we have identified your wife from the records of the Commission. However, when you applied for the enrollment of your wife you advised the Commission that her name was Elzina Robison. In the certificate as to the birth of your daughter the Notary shows her name to be Elzina Robinson and that of your daughter as Bertha H. Robertson. The affidavit is therefore returned to you for correction. If the correct name is Robison it must so appear throughout the birth certificate.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of WILLIAM T. JONES, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, his wife MARY JONES, and his children, JOHN E., GEORGE O., PERRY, WILLIAM A., ALMA J. and MORA JONES, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation:

WILLIAM T. JONES, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A William T. Jones.
Q How old are you? A Forty five.
Q What is your post office? A Chelsea.
Q Are you an applicant to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage?
A Why, if I understand right, my application has been made.
Q You have heretofore made application? A Yes sir.
Q You are a white man? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the wife through whom you claim your rights of citizenship? A She was Mary Ross, her maiden name; she married one man named Andy Hare, and afterwards they were divorced through this arbitration.
Q You married one Mary Hare? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry her? A August 24, I think it was, 1884.
Q Were you married to her under a Cherokee marriage license?
A Yes sir.
Q Was that your first marriage? A Yes sir.
Q You had never been married before? A No sir.
Q You say your wife Mary had been previously married?
A Yes sir.
Q Her first husband's name was what? A Andy Hare.
Q You say that your wife Mary and her husband, Hare, had been divorced by arbitration? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know anything about that arbitration, of your own knowledge?
A Nothing more than, when we was talking of her marriage, I asked her if her and Hare had ever been divorced, she said not, and I told her that before we would become man and wife that she would have to have a divorce. Andy Hare made application to the circuit court; she was going, and they said there was no use going, for if she wouldn't appear a divorce would be granted by default. She had a child, and the court wouldn't give a divorce unless she was there, on account of the child, and the clerk told them to arbitrate. and they made the decision and give my wife the child, with the understanding that, if she died before the child became of age, the child would go back to him.
Q You say this arbitration dissolved the bonds of matrimony between your wife and him? A Yes sir.
Q When was that arbitration made? A In May, 1884.
Q It was before your marriage? A Yes sir a couple or three months; I think it was in May.
Q There was no divorce by the court? A No sir.
Q That was all the divorce there was, by this arbitration?
A That's all.
Q Who were the arbitrators? A Ed Ratley, John Brock and George Blackbird.
Q Are any of these people living? A Ed Ratley is living.

- Q The other two are dead, are they ? A Yes sir. Mr. Bird died a year after the arbitration.
- Q Was that arbitration in writing, do you know ?
- A Now that's what I can't tell, it is supposed to be, and my wife has always been under the impression that it is on record.
- Q You say Mr. Hare applied to the court for a divorce ?
- A The circuit court in Saline District.
- Q He filed his petition did he, do you know ?
- A That part of it, I don't know whether he filed a petition or not.
- Q Do you know whether any search of the records has been made ?
- A I had a lawyer at Chelsea to write to the executive clerk, and we failed to get an answer; my brother in law, Andrew Ross, he told me Hare had been there and made a search.
- Q You don't know of your own knowledge ? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever make a search ? A No sir, I never had a chance, only through this lawyer.
- Q Did he have a search made ? A No sir, he hasn't heard anything about it since he has written.
- Q He can't get any answer ? A He can't get any answer.
- Q You don't know whether there is any record of it ?
- A It seems that they searched the record.
- Q Andy Hare ? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know of they had the records searched ?
- A Mr. Ross knows more about that than I do.
- Q Now you supposed that that was a legal divorce ?
- A Most assuredly I did, or I never would have entered into matrimony with the woman.
- Q You were married in good faith, thinking she was divorced ?
- A Yes sir.
- Q And she believed so too ? A Yes sir.
- Q Is that the only time your wife had ever been married ?
- A Yes sir.
- Q You say you had never been married before ?
- A No sir, I never had.
- Q Have you lived together ever since ? A Continuously.
- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since ?
- A Yes sir, I was out once and went to Hot Springs on account of rheumatism.
- Q You have how many children ? A Six children living.
- Q Give me their names ? A John E., George O., Perry, William A., Alma J. and Mona.
- Q Mona is it ? A It is Mona.
- Q It should be Mona ? A M-o-n-a is the way we spell it.

H. C. ROSS, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q What is your name ? A H. C. Ross.
- Q How old are you, Mr. Ross ? A Fifty four.
- Q What is your post office address ? A Locust Grove, I. T.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A I am.
- Q Do you know William T. Jones ? A I do.
- Q Do you know his wife Mary Jones ? A I do.
- Q How long have you known them ? A Why, I have known Mary, his wife ever since she was a child, all her life, and I have known Mr. Jones, I guess eighteen or twenty years.
- Q Do you know Andy Hare, the first husband of Mrs. Jones ?
- A Yes sir.

Q Do you know anything about the alleged divorce between them?
 A No sir, not of my own personal knowledge, I don't, that arbitration was had right there in my neighborhood, right close. I have no recollection of being there. It was my understanding that the arbitration had been made, and the general opinion of the neighborhood was, that they had been divorced.

Q Did you ever hold any official position in the Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q What? A Well, I have held two or three different positions district sheriff, and I was district judge, and a member of the National Council.

Q You are a Cherokee by blood, aren't you? A Yes sir.

Q Lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes sir.

Q You are a Senator at the present time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know, Mr. Ross, how this kind of a divorce, a divorce by arbitration, has been considered by the Cherokee people?

A Well sir, I don't know as I can answer that.

Q Whether such a divorce is regarded as valid?

A I suppose it must be valid; I never gave it very much thought, I thought it was alright; I had never given any thought about it, never investigated it; I thought it was alright.

Q It has been your understanding, has it, that, under the Cherokee law which provides that any dispute may be arbitrated, that such a divorce may be given? A I thought this, that the Supreme Court may have made a ruling on that.

Q You don't know that it has? A I don't know.

Q Do you know, Mr. Ross, whether the records of Saline District have been searched for the record of this supposed divorce by arbitration? A I heard that they were searched at Tahlequah; I was with the Commission in October, and left two weeks before the expiration of their sitting there, and Mr. Hare came in and I saw him afterwards. He gave me to understand that he failed to find any record, and I advised him to go to Mr. Jones, and see if Mary Jones didn't have a copy of the proceedings. I don't know whether he done that or not, I understand he didn't go.

The Commission, (to applicant):

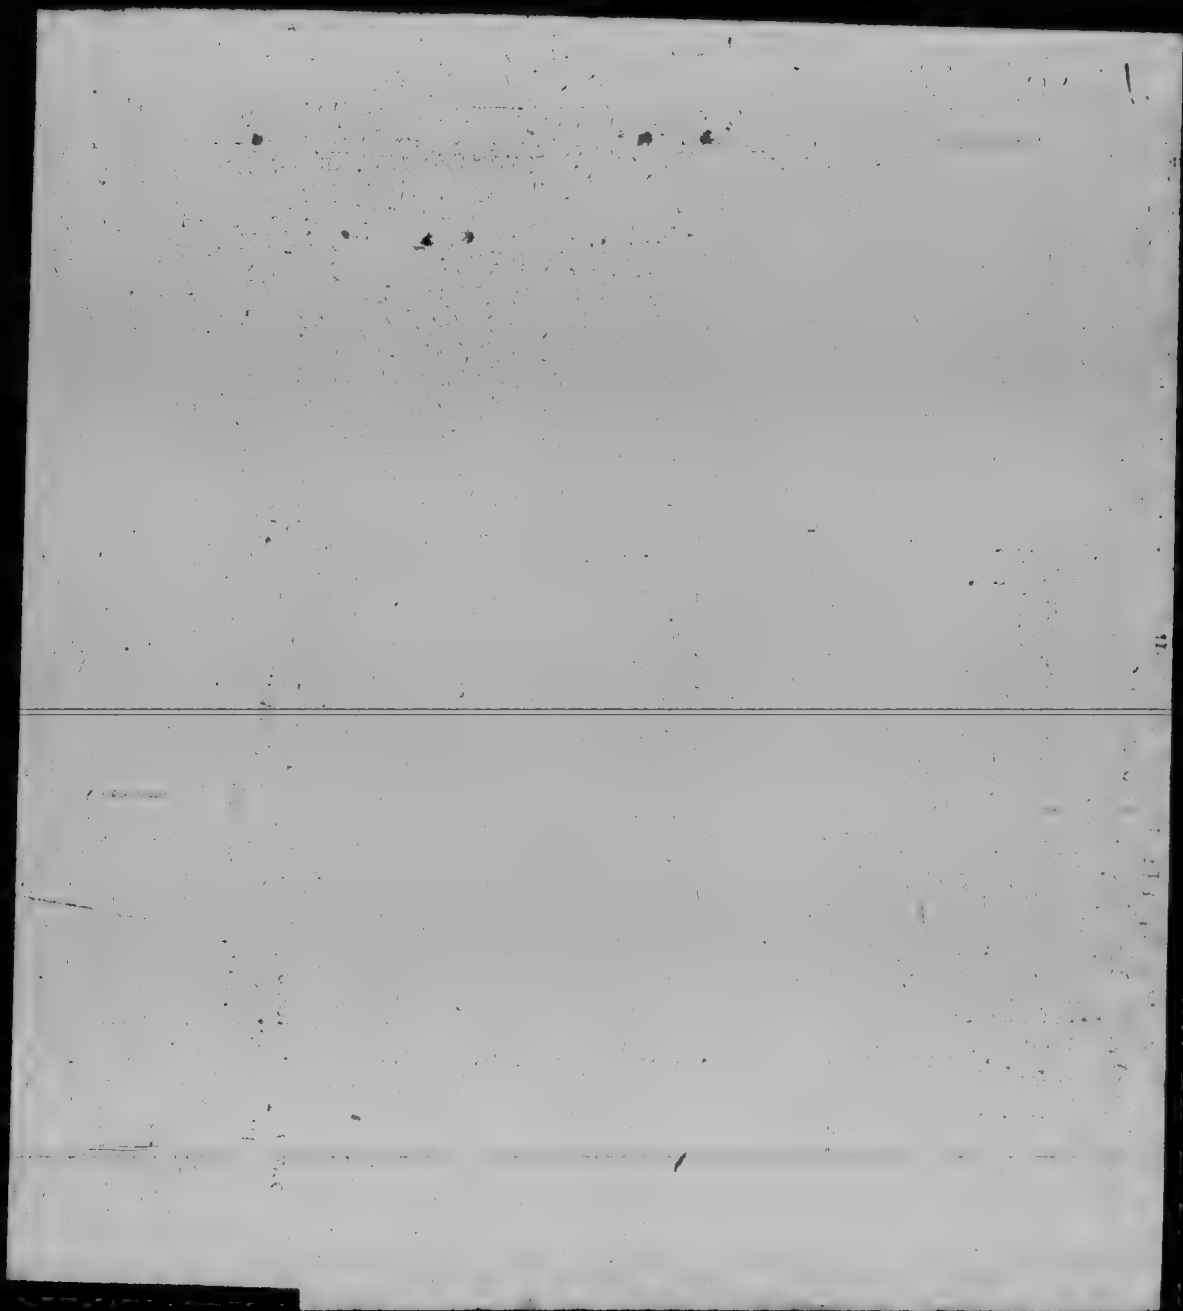

Now Mr. Jones, without intimating what the Commission's opinion would be, it will be necessary for you to get a certificate of the National Secretary as to whether there is or is not a record of this arbitration.

The Commission: It is ordered that a copy of this testimony be filed with and made a part of the record in the case of Andy Hare, et al, Cherokee # 2385.

I, E. C. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath, state that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of the stenographic notes of the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause, as the same were reported by Jesse O. Carr, stenographer, and by him read to me.

J. W. Clark, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. State your full name? A. J. W. Clark.
Q. How old are you? A. The coming March I am 61 years old.
Q. What is your post office? A. Winita.
Q. Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Cherokee by blood, are you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you at one time hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, I have held various positions in the Cherokee Nation.
Q. Were you at one time judge of the circuit court? A. Yes,
I was judge of the northern district eight years.
Q. What district does that embrace? A. That embraces Delaware, Coowascoowee, Saline and Tahlequah.
Q. Were you judge of that district in 1894? A. Yes, I presided in that northern circuit in 1894.
Q. Do you remember a divorce suit being brought in your court in which Mary Jane was the plaintiff and Mary Hare was defendant?
A. Yes, sir; I recollect the case.
Q. Just tell in your own way what disposition was made of this case? A. My ~~understanding~~ understanding from recollection of it now--I am now would be more familiar with the case. Joe Ross was clerk of the court. The case came before the court and they had an agreement to compromise--to arbitrate it--and Ross took it from the docket.
Q. Ross took it from the docket? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What sort of a process is this arbitration? A. Our rule for arbitration was for the parties to pick two disinterested persons to arbitrate the matter and if they disagreed to take a third one. The law provided for it. The law provided for arbitration before coming before the court. If it went before the court and they decided to arbitrate, it was erased from the record. The law provided for it.
Q. This was under the Cherokee law providing that civil cases--

Q. And, would be arbitrated, yes, sir.

A. Now, was it your opinion as Judge that divorce cases were under the law? A. Yes, sir; that if the law permitted it.

Q. That was generally understood, was it, among the people? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That divorce could be arbitrated? A. Yes, sir, a divorce could be arbitrated.

Q. So when it is a matter in which the parties desired to arbitrate, it was struck from the docket? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And a suit was filed in arbitration? A. Yes, sir. A. And it was struck from the docket, yes, sir.

Q. The clerk of the court, when the parties desired to arbitrate, did he take any part in that arbitration? A. No, sir. The arbitration was submitted to the parties and the law, and it was sure.

Q. The law provides that any dispute or controversy shall be settled by arbitration and it further provides that before proceeding to arbitration, the parties shall be sworn to the honor of the circuit court or the clerk of the circuit court. The papers shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court. That is my understanding of it. A. That is correct, general, I am in charge of that.

Q. Your clerk took care of this matter? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't? A. No, sir. A. Only to dismiss the case from our docket, when we found they were ready to arbitrate? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So you know as a matter of fact that this matter was arbitrated? A. My recollection is that it was. I knew both parties. I knew that he married afterwards; the man did. My understanding is she married.

Q. The case was stricken from the docket? A. I ordered the case stricken from the docket.

Q. Now, when, was it your opinion and understanding that this method of dissolving marriage relations between parties was legal?

A. That was my understanding, under the arbitration law it was a legal proceeding.

Q. That was the general understanding among the people? A. Yes, sir, that was the understanding.

Q. Of course, many cases of this character in the circuit court? A. Yes, I would say that while I served on the bench, I can hardly ever find a suit between two citizens; they arbitrated it.

Q. I mean divorce cases? A. I don't recollect as I do. I don't recollect of any cases, I believe, yes, it is Princeton case, but the woman was named.

Q. Was that in your court? A. Yes, that was in my court to.

Q. That case was decided by arbitration also? A. I think it was; it was heard so long ago.

Q. Tell, from your experience on the bench for eight years, did you ever hear, or was it ever intimated by any person, whether attorney or layman, that this method of dissolving marriage relations was illegal? A. Never heard it mentioned. It was always considered a legal suit. ~~the~~ law and could be arbitrated the same as a divorce suit.

Q. It was generally understood and accepted as the proper method of dissolving marriage relations? A. Yes, sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dear Sir:-

When you appeared before this Commission on October 6, 1902, and testified as to your right to enrollment, on September 1, 1902, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, you were notified that, before your application for enrollment would be complete, it would be necessary for you to supply the Commission with a certified copy of the decree of divorce granted to your wife, Mary Jones, from her former husband.

This decree of divorce has not yet been supplied to the Commission, and you are now requested to forward same at the earliest possible date.

Respectfully,
